Types of Short Term Exchange Programs

Family to family exchange

(Homestays Ages 15-19)

General Application Pages 3-7 and Supplementary Page A

This program is for individual participants or groups of participants to stay with host families in another country for a few weeks. Most Homestays are reciprocal; for example, a Brazil-Germany exchange may start with a young person from Brazil spending a few weeks in Germany, followed by a visit from a German youth to Brazil. Such exchanges are normally family-to-family or club-to-club. During the course of this program it may be possible to participate in Tours for groups of young people from the same country or several different countries.

Youth Camps and Tours

(Ages 15-24 as determined by the organisers of the individual camp or tour)

General Application Pages 3-7 and Supplementary Page B

These camps bring together participants from several countries and take place usually in summer. Camps may have themes such as sports, culture, nature, language, computer or participation in a community service project. Some camps provide leadership training and address international concerns. By bringing together international participants, camps promote cultural tolerance and international understanding through friendship. Where possible young people with disabilities will be included in the camp or tour programs, however for the more severely disabled special camps known as 'Handicamps' are organised where participants can be assisted by a carer. In addition to this Application Form further information from participants will be required by the organisers.

Rules and Conditions of Exchange, Permissions and Declarations

As a Youth Exchange Program participant supported by a Rotary club or district, you must agree to the following rules and conditions of exchange. Please note that districts may edit this document or insert additional rules if needed to account for local conditions.

Rules and Conditions of Exchange

1. You must obey the laws of the host country. If found guilty of violating any law, you can expect no assistance from your sponsors or native country. You must return home at your own expense as soon as released by authorities.
2. You will be under the host district's authority while you are an exchange program participant and must abide by the rules and conditions of exchange provided by the host district. Parents or legal guardians must not authorize any extra activities directly to you. Any relatives you may have in the host country will have no authority over you while you are in the program.
3. You are not allowed to possess or use illegal drugs. Medicine prescribed to you by a physician is allowed.

6. You must have travel insurance that provides coverage for accidental injury and illness, third party liability, death benefits (including repatriation of remains), disability/ dismemberment benefits, emergency medical evacuation, emergency visitation expenses, 24-hour emergency assistance services, and legal services, in amounts satisfactory to the host Rotary club or district, with coverage from the time of your departure from your home country until your return.

Travel is permitted with host parents or for Rotary club or district functions authorized by the host Rotary club or district with proper adult chaperones. 12. Any costs related to an early return home or any other unusual costs (language tutoring, tours, etc.) are the responsibility of you and your parents or legal guardians.

 3. Make an effort to learn the basics of the language of the host country.

 7. Limit your use of the Internet and mobile phones. Excessive or inappropriate use is not acceptable.
 8. If you are offered an opportunity to go on a trip or attend an event, make sure you understand any costs you must pay and your responsibilities before you go.

Supplemental information about applicants: Letters and Photos

Hello, my name is Julie Huret, I am 16 years old and I live in a small town in the south west of France between Bordeaux and Toulouse. I am an only child and I live with my parents and my dog, Emy.

First, I'm going to present myself in the current life. About my personality, I am a cheerful and a good mood girl. That's why, during my free time, I'm keen on hanging out with my group of friends. We used to go to the cinema or just order food and chill all together. Spending time all together is just enough especially during Covid time when it's so difficult to meet in public area. I'm in high school, in first grade. At school, I try to do my best in every subjects, even those I like less ! My lessons start at 8 : am until 6 : pm. I only have one hour free for lunch time. Each class last 55 minutes and I can't choose my class apart from the options as English (3 hours per week practicing and speaking). It's only 15 minutes away from home to school and my parents bring me to school and I take the bus back home. I live in a comfortable house, with a swimming pool where I have my own bedroom, desk and bathroom.

I'm also part of an association called Erasmus in order to travel in foreign countries and help local people. We set up projects to receive foreign teenagers and we organise events in our city

In summer, my family and I used to spend hot season on the French Riviera, in the south of France. As I am born in Cannes, I have a lot of friends there and especially my best friend Elora that I have known since I'm 3 years old. We spend a lot of time together going to the beach or staying in her very nice house.

In my family, I am very close of them. I like spending time with them or going on holidays around the world. We have already been to Mexico, Corsica, Portugal, United States and, recently, to Dubai.

I would love to go to the USA and discover this new culture which is very attractive for me.

I am aware that English is nowadays essential to be spoken, both to work or travel. I also need to speak fluent english for my future studies. I am heading for studies in international trade so fluency in oral and written English is absolutely required for me.

And I would be so happy to learn it ! I Already have a B2 level, but I am only at the beginning and the road is still long.

Concerning the food, I like almost everything except vegetables. I just can't eat spinach, salad and mayonnaise.

I don't like feeling oppressed and stressed. According to me, my different qualities are my enthusiasm and desire to discover new things. I'm always up for new adventures and I try not to stay in my comfort zone. I'm fond of going out on the beach for example, practising sports or going shopping. I'm also a really resourceful person so this project with you is made for me !

In my future, I would like to do a business school in order to work in international trade. That's why English is so important for me. It is just a condition to pass my exams and success in my studies !

I'm sure this trip will bring me a lot of experiences. Indeed, last summer, I have been in England and I noticed that this experience allow me to learn about myself. As they say, travel is youth !

I would love to go to the USA. I hope this travel will help me to be more confident with speaking English and I hope you will be able to give me a chance to make my dream come true. I would love to make new friends at the other side of the world !

Yours sincerely

Julie Huret
